Let's Get Ready to Go Back to School!

Donations for the annual "School Tools" Drive will be collected on Sundays July 30th, August 6th & August 13th in Linden Court (RSV) and in Grocery Cart at main entrance (SAP). School Children from low-income and homeless families need new backpacks, calculators, and other school essentials. Please stop by the "Connection Point" to pick up a supply list. Monetary donations are always welcome with checks payable to Centennial UMC with "School Tools" in the memo line. Questions? Do you like seeing the changing art on the walls of Linden Court? The Visual Arts Ministry Committee would like to invite members from both campuses to share their art with the church. We invite any type of media, for example: drawings, paintings, photography, textiles, quilts, needlework, or even collections you might have of other artist's work. It doesn't matter if you have a few pieces or many, we can figure out a way to display your art. Artists' work is usually up for two months. Questions? Contact Lori Ihnen | loriihnen@gmail.com

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN: ROSEVILLE CAMPUS PHASE

As you may have heard, Centennial United Methodist Church is conducting a Roseville Campus Phase for the Stepping Forward in Faith Capital Campaign. Due to the efforts of many, our initial campaign launch was a success! We raised $1.1 million in pledges which enabled Centennial UMC to meet our goal of opening the St. Anthony Park Campus.

The SAP Campus was our first priority in order to continue the momentum of merging and serving members and guests at that location as soon as possible. Through the initial effort we did not meet our stretch goal to address the Roseville Campus projects.

As the interest to improve the Roseville Campus is still alive, Centennial UMC is now entering into the next phase of our Stepping Forward in Faith Campaign. This week members will be receiving information in the mail regarding giving towards this second phase. We ask each member to prayerfully consider what God is calling them to do. Thank you for your interest and consideration!
