Volunteers needed for Sheridan Backpack Program: Church and Society is looking for additional volunteers to place food bags in backpacks on Friday mornings (some Thursdays) at Edgerton Elementary. The task takes about 30 to 40 minutes. A team of four people works approximately once a week in a schedule that is adapted to volunteer availability. Delivery will begin in mid-September. If fighting childhood hunger is your calling or if you have questions, contact Bonnie Koch, 651-683-2992, toouray@aol.com or sign up at the Connection Point.

CENTENNIAL COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Centennial's Contemplative Garden: In case one has not noticed, our garden in the backyard, Or SW corner of the building, is in fabulous bloom! Look before it's too late! The garden is built around a labyrinth to walk and pray or just contemplate God's love and peace. On the NE corner wall, there is a Remembrance Tree where former and present members have their names on a leaf. Many have had committal services there, and placed a small amount of cremains in the earth some have planned to do it in the future. There are Garden Brochures on the Connection Point reading rack!

✝ Name Tags: The Inviting Ministries Team invites all to wear their Roseville Campus name tags because, when all are wearing their name tags, then all are welcomed, and all are clearly invited to engage with our church community. To promote this, Inviting Ministries is replacing current name tags, in their myriad of styles, with new Centennial Green name tags with fasteners of your choosing. Because they also can be created on-the-spot, even visitors will be able to wear these name tags. Please fill out a handout found at the Connection Point then hand to Carol Johnson, Mim Heggerston, Curt Gumbrell, or Julie Elholm in the office as soon as you can. Any Questions contact Curt Gumbrell | cagumbrell@comcast.net
